BOMBAY, India, June 27—(AP) The newspaper Harijan said today that Hiralal M. Gandhi, 61, eldest son of the late Mohandas K. Gandhi, died June 19 in Bombay. Harijan, founded by Mohandas Gandhi, is published in Ahmedabad. Harijan newspapers have published reports of the son's death. Hiralal, eldest of Gandhi's four sons, long opposed his father's religious and political principles, but became reconciled with his father in 1933. Several years ago he created a sensation in India by leaving his father's Hindu faith and embracing the Moslem religion. He changed his name at that time to Abdullah. About six months later he became reconciled to Mohandas. When Hiralal was young Mohandas Gandhi stopped his son's education and placed him in menial work in South Africa. It was reported in later years that Mohandas regretted this experiment. Hiralal was living in seclusion in Bombay. He was not known to have attended his father's cremation following the assassination of Mohandas Gandhi last Jan. 30. Grand leftover meat, moisten it with any leftover gravy, season as desired and put in a greased casserole, top with rounds of baking powder biscuit dough and bake in a hot oven.
