Lancaster Kept in Quandary Over Numerous Cinema Offers

HOLLYWOOD—With "Thunder on the Hill" indefinitely postponed because of Joan Fontaine's impending motherhood, Burt Lancaster (who was to have been co-star in it) is suddenly free to make another movie right away—before he starts his own Norma Productions picture of the John Galsworthy story, "The First and the Last." 20th-Fox is hot on his trail to do "Down to the Sea in Ships," but whether he'll do that or another for his personal outfit is something he can't make up his mind about at the moment. There's that "Eagle and the Cactus" yarn very much on the fire for him too. How hot can you get?

Dorothy Lamour got Pres. Truman's autograph from him while he was in Los Angeles. She wanted it for her little son, Nigely Howard. She reminded Truman that when he was a Senator, he autographed for Margaret's book.

Diana Lynn has been showing up at parties lately with one or more fingers bandaged. She says she does that so the host or hostess won't ask her to play the piano.

When Rod Cameron starts "The Far Outpost" with Ilona Massey this week, he'll go on working steadily for the next five months. He has four movies ahead of him to do before the end of the year—and it doesn't look like he'll get a day off between 'em.

June Horne, Jackie Cooper's wife, is playing bits in pictures around various studios.

Draper Alumni Carry on Picnic Despite Showers

Heavy showers at the beginning of the 22nd annual Draper school alumni picnic Saturday forced everyone to flee for shelter, but more than 50 persons returned to carry on at Vilas park.

"It's a loyal crowd we had," W. H. Milward, president of the alumni group, said.

Several members over 80 years old who attended Draper school when it first opened, stayed on to reminisce and talk with old schoolmates.

The school, known as the Fifth ward school in early days, was closed in 1940. The alumni association began meeting in 1926.

A pot-luck supper was served at 5 p. m. Messages from classmates unable to attend were read. Most of the attendees this year were residents of Madison.

Milward and Mrs. Joseph Speckner, secretary-treasurer, were in charge.

Hugh Herbert, who did the first, is writing and will direct the follow-up, "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College"—and it sounds like a field day for Nancy Guild, Barbara Lawrence, Coleen Townsend and others of the "younger set" in the cast. Not to mention the one, the only, the original Clifton Webb. This time "Belvedere" enrolls as an American college freshman, despite the fact that he's a graduate of a famous European university, and works his way through an education, as a hasher in a sorority house.

Sparta Family to Visit Relatives in England

SPARTA—Mrs. Jerry Burroughs, who came to Sparta as a British war bride in April, 1946, will be joined by her husband and 15-month-old daughter, Barbara Ann, for a return trip to her homeland leaving July 12. They will fly from La Crosse to London, making a day stop in Boston to visit Mrs. Burroughs' aunt, Mrs. Charles Butler.

Carnival Set for Vets in Hospital at Tomah

TOMAH—A carnival will be provided for more than 500 patients of the Veterans Administration hospital on July 5. The program will be sponsored by the special services department of the hospital assisted by several veterans organizations and Red Cross units in the area.

Decorations will be provided by the Tomah Veterans Assn. Several bands will provide musical background.

The program will be concluded with a picnic supper, to be served by the dietetic department of the hospital. H. L. Krueger, special services officer, is leading the committee.

Woman Plans Picnic for 90th Birthday

SOUTH WAYNE—Mrs. Mary Robinson Maddrell, lifelong resident of the South Wayne vicinity, has invited friends to help observe her 90th birthday at a picnic dinner in the South Wayne village park July 4.

Mrs. Maddrell was born in Cadiz township July 4, 1858, and lived on a farm 3 miles east of South Wayne until her marriage May 1, 1875, to John T. Maddrell, South Wayne. They farmed until they moved to the village in 1902. He died in 1930.

She has been living with her sons, Roy Rockford, Ill., and Bert, Brownstown. She also has a daughter, Mrs. George Kramer, Milwaukee, and a son, Jasper, Darlington.

Don't Throw Money Away! USED FATS Are Still Needed!

STOP AND THINK! Used fats are the only kitchen waste you can turn into money... and every spare bit of change helps out on food bills these days! So keep on saving and turning in used fats. Not only to help yourself, but to help ease the shortage of fats and oils that the government says is still very serious.

YOU'LL GET LOTS MORE FAT... to turn in for cash... if you'll go back to those wartime salvage tricks. Melt down meat trimmings, skim gravies, scrape every pan clean! There's never too little to save. Every drop is still needed!
