ANY MAN is free to change his mind. But he should not feel aggrieved if sometimes his words of other days rise up to confound him.

Take the case of Henry Wallace, for instance. It was not so long ago that Wallace was as-serting: "The strategy of the enemy is to break the Demo-cratic Party in two. They want to push you and me into the futility of a third party."

cashed the king of diamonds the squeeze would not have come off. When the hand was over Mrs. Wood said, with twinkling eyes, "I told you he is good." Answer to Question No. 1

Answer to Question No. 1 All I know is that the late Warden Lawes at Sing Sing stated he had applications from a large number of women for the job. Nearly all said they wanted the job solely for the money. One, however, said she liked to tinker with electricity, and another said she had always had it in for men and wanted to pop off a few!

Answer to Question No. 2

It would take a young for-tune to buy a meal big enough to No, it shows it is progress-ing. May be you remember what Peter Finley Dunne's "Mr. Doo-ley" said, "I tell ye Hennessey, in every book of ackerate insink a tooth of those dimensions in.
