When the national champion-shipa tournament opens at the Hotel Stevens in Chicago July 31, there will be a large delegation, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Last year Frank Weisbach, of Cincinnati, and Allen Harvey of Louisville, Ky., won the world championship masters pair event. Cincinnati has many other players who think they are just as good as these two boys, but the cham-pions will be a hard pair to beat in the coming tournament. Harvey is popular, but his op-ponents should not allow his little smile to deceive them, be-cauae he is always on his toes. Here is a defensive play that I saw him make on today's hand. Declarer was in a three no-trump contract, and he won the opening lead of the heart seven with the ace when Harvey (East) went up with the queen. Now South led the seven of clubs and finessed dummy's ninespot. A careless East player might win this trick with the jack, then lead the king of hearts and another heart, clearing the heart suit. But

Opening ↓ 7 20 of hearts, would be to lead anoth-er club, go up with dummy's ace and lead the jack of diamonds. This would give him two spades, two hearts, four diamonds and a club trick. Harvey knew that he had to throw the declarer off that line of play. He won the nine of clubs with the king and led back the of of hearts. Now when South got in, he could not figure Har-vey for the pack of clubs, so he led another club, finessed the 10-spot and down he went.

properly placed lamps mean BETTER light Properly placed lamps give you better eye-saving light without extra lamps or added use of electricity. By rearranging the chairs and furniture in your home, you otten can provide good light for two or more persons with a single lamp. The illustration above shows one such arrangement, using a properly placed lamp
