NO PROGRESS SEEN AFTER FIRST DAY OF FORD PARLEYS

DETROIT, July 20.—(AP)—The Ford Motor Co. and the CIO United Auto Workers ended the first of their new stop-strike wage talks today with no sign of having reached an agreement.

Meeting for five hours after a six-day halt in the negotiations, both sides left the session with a terse No comment.

They agreed however to meet again Wednesday (2 p.m.).

When the session broke up, union negotiators went into a private and unobserved conference—possibly to discuss the setting of a strike date.

Strike Action Authorized

Strike action has already been approved by the union's 110,000 Ford workers and by its international executive board.

The actual setting of a strike date was left to Ken Banner, UAW National Ford Director.

There were none of the usual pre-strike sings however among the union's IAW sources said work on negotiating plant details in a union kitchen had not begun.

The pact had been announced and wage offers was termed a "final" one and included a 14-cent raise and seven social security and other benefits.

The union had asked for a 15-cent wage increase from a 14-cent wage boost plus 14 cents in fringe on condition of a plant that is now 100 percent unionized.

partially in the vicinity of 21 cent overall.

Present average wage is about $1.72 an hour.

Federal mediators were not yet in the picture, but one of them, Justin McCormick, remained on the sidelines at today's sessions as an observer.

MARKS 101ST BIRTHDAY

STAFFORD SPRINGS, July 20.—(AP)—Washington Dana Graves marked his 101st birthday quietly here today daily chortling the event in the diary he has been keeping since 1866. The day also marked the 71st birthday of his son, Alton M. Graves of Melrose, Mass. Formal celebration of the two birthdays will be held Sunday at the Graves home here. Graves is the fourth oldest 101-year-old in the United States.
