WARD BROS. 2914 EAST ANAMEIM Extablished Over 21 Years McKENNEY ON BRIDGE By WILLAM E. McKENNEY

By Jay Alan

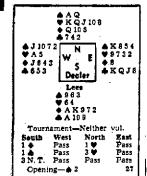

One of the hardest workers for organized bridge in the midwest is Harry Lees, of St. Louis, Mo., vice president of the American Auto Insurance Companies. ican Auto Insurance Companies. He is a vice president of the American Contract Bridge League, and served for some time as president of the Midwest Conference of the league. He will head the St. Louis delegation to the summer session of the national championships tournament starting July 31 in Chicago.

nament starting July 31 in Chicago.

Although Lees is a bridge leader, he plays tournament bridge just for the fun of it. Nevertheless, he is always in there to take all the match points he can on a hand. He certainly collected all of them on today's hand.

So far as his spade bid is concerned, I think that Lees has a theory that if nobody else bids spades, it might be a good idea to bid them yourself. But the spade bid did not stop West from opening the deuce of spades, and that was the opening at practically every table in the room.

Also, everybody put on the queen from dummy—that is, everybody hut Lees. At all of the other tables East's king won the first trick, the king of clubs came back. And now try to make three no trump!

Lees went right up with dummy's ace of spaces on the first trick, and led the king of hearts. Why? Because he counted one spade trick, four heart tricks, three diamonds and the ace of clubs—nine tricks, and that was what he made, for a top score what he made, for a top score on the board.

DINNER STORIES

Civil service tests have worked in unexpected ways before now. There is the story of the candidate for the Foreign Office who failed to answer any of the questions put to him at the oral examination—and then topped the list of the successful.

A little later one of the examiners told him: "We saw you knew nothing, but your manner was so free from constraint in what, to some people, would have been embarrassing circumwas so free from constraint in what, to some people, would have been embarrassing circumstances that we decided, "That's the very man to make a good diplomat." So we passed you."

And he cid make a good diplomat.

"Do you believe in Buddha?"
"Of course, But I think elec-margarine is just as good."
