Orchids From England Prized in Siam

BANGKOK, Siam — (UP)—The shipment by air of orchids from the cold climate of England to tropical Siam call for an explan-ation of the "coals to Newcastle"

The orchids are the result of hybridizations of plants originally taken to England from Malaya by Sir Hugh Low almost a century ago.

Sir Hugh founded his orchid nurseries in 1830 and his successors. 87-year-old Stuart Henry Low and Miss. W. Eileen Low, carry on. They manage nurseries at Crowborough, where hybrids are developed from specimens collected from tropical regions all over the world. The hybrids are sent back to the orchid-producing countries to collectors and fanciers.

Worth from $4 to $2,000 a single plant, the orchids are packed in special boxes for air transport.

Veteran Makes Plea For Doomed Pigeons

SAN FRANCISCO — (U.P.) — A new suggestion on how to rid San Francisco's civic center of its troublesome pigeons has been made to Mayor Elmer Robinson. Paul L. Widener, Tulsa veteran wants them exiled to Oklahoma. Widener, who is starting a squab farm in a small way, wrote:
"I don't like to think of you killing them. The pigeons would give me a big boost in my farm venture." He offered to pay freight charges.

MEMPHIS, don't have to listen," Judge a potential ju be excused be of false teeth.

Farm Life Also Unsafe, Institute Reports

NEW YORK —(UP)— Farm people, like their city neighbors, are injured within the home more than any place else, according to J. H. Oppenheim, president of the Farm Equipment Institute.

Endorsing National Farm Safety Week, July 25-31, Oppenheim said 4,300 farm workers were killed and 300,000 injured during 1947, representing 200 fewer deaths and 20,000 fewer injuries than in the previous year.
