Q. Who chooses the designs for new coins? How often are

A. Selection of designs for our coins is made by the Director of the Mint with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Congress has, in a few instances, prescribed a coin design, such as in the case of the Washington bicentennial 25-cent piece is sued from 1932 to date, which was required to bear the portrait of our first President, Ex-
