End to Gangster Pictures? It Doesn't Seem in Sight

By EDITH GWYNN when the new Marx brothers pic-HOLLYWOOD — What hap-ened to all those studio an-Marion was once a soda-jerk, but pened to all those studio announcements some time back that gangster pictures would be abandoned? Seems like every flicker in the theaters is a gun-totin' opus. The most brutal, triggerhappy of the current yarns being readied is "Gun Crazy," recently announced by the King brothers —all about the son of a mobster who inherits all his father's love who le bunch for gats—until he gets bumped off for gats—until he gets bumped off in the end. Then there are "Key Largo," "Raw Deal," and "Street complete with a with No Name" as current attractions—and the last-named is doing termendous business.

They didn't get

ng tremendous business.

A few days before David Grifmuch work done fith died, someone asked Dorothy though, because Gish, "Where can I find Mr. Griffith?" and she answered "On every movie screen in America." ing with flu. On Alan Young, the comic, spends hand, among his spare time doing lots of things others, was fare organization—noping to raise funds for uniforms and a better place to meet.

Contrary to reports that song-bird Peggy Lee will do only one air-show with Bing Crosby this coming season, she will do exactly 15 stanzas with him. And we can't think of better news to print.

The Richard Greenes sailing Aug. 21 for England, where he'll do "Autumn," with Gregory Ratoff directing. Richard is really "sailing" career-wise, now that he's doing that lead in "The Fan." Had to turn down another English picture, and is currently wanted for "Lorna Doone" and "Royal Mail," among others.

People are saying that Betty Hutton's sister, Marion will emerge as a star in her own right after just finishing a bawdy, badwoman role in "Act of Violence" in the same studio—and doing a swell job. Remember just a few years ago when Mary's daughter, Marilyn Thorpe was the subject of that bitter custody fight between Astor and her husband, Dr. Thorpe? Front page stuff for weeks. Well, "little" Marilyn is making her movie debut with a small role in "Little Women." Time, as they do say, certainly marches on!

Elizabeth Taylor is not going to be in "Quo Vadis" as publicized elsewhere. When she finishes "Little Women," Liz will head for England to play the lead in "The Conspirators," which Metro will produce abroad, with Victor Saville directing.
