By Dick Turner

BY WILLAM E. MOKENNEY FOLAY'S hand was played by Mrs. John H. Herminstone of Charleroi, Pa. She held the West cards, and the bidding shown is exactly the way it occurred.

Mrs. Hermistone said that it might have been safer to overcall with two diamonds rather than four. I believe that since South had bid a spade and she held five of them, there was no need for her to try to shut out further bidding on the part of South Also, she was void in bearts and clubs, and if the opporients bid either of those suits, Mrs. Hermistone's partner probably would be well fortified against them.

However, she bid four dia-monds and when North bid four hearin, East could not be blamed

Now, when South doubled five diamonds, Mrs. Hermistone cer-tainly should not have redoubled. Had she not done so, she and her partner would have lost no more than they would if the op-ponents had made the redouble spade contract.

It was a disastrous hand for East and West, as the opponents cashed five spade tricks and two diamond tricks.

Freak hands are difficult to handle as well as to analyze. In
