In one of the most comprehensive promotions of its kind, Paramount studio recently completed arrangements with Sears, Roebuck & Co., whereby four forthcoming top re-leases will be "pre-sold" nationally and locally through tieups with the entire nationwide store chain.

-By FRED RUSSELL

Passing Show

The huge promotion will focus attention on "N.ght Has a Thousand Eyes," "Sealed Verdict" "The Tatlock Millions" and the Technicolor film "The Paleface," both on a national and local level. pictures will be exploited through a nationwide amateur "snapshot contest" to be conducted by the Sears chain from Oct. 1 to Nov. 15 in which prizewinning photos are to awarded at least $10,000 in cash and several thousand dollars in photo equipment. Local prizewinners will be eligible for $1,000 in eash in national grand awards. Six nationally known judges will decide the contest. They comprise the directors of photography of the four Paramount pictures exploited through the theup, including John F. Seitz, "Night Has a Thousand Eyes"; Leo Tover, "Seafed Veidict"; Charles B. Lang, Jr., "The Tatlock Millions"; Ray Renathan "The Paleface" and A. L. nahan, "The Paleface"; and A. L. "Whitey" Schafer, director of Paramount studio still photogra-phy, and Frank Fenner, Jr., editor, Popular Photography maga-

Sears stores will build window and interior displays featuring scene stills from the four Paramount films, and displays will be tied in with the local theaters playing the pictures, and the playdate.
