Hillsboro Legion to Raise Home Funds
HILLSBORO — Members of the Harrison-Jones post of the American Legion, Hillsboro, of a fund-raising campaign for their newly purchased home.
The E. V. Wernick home on Main st. was purchased recently. Remodeling is expected to be started when the post takes possession Oct. 1.
The entire group of 135 members is expected to attend the meeting. Each member is to be assigned a group of names to contact for the memorial fund. The building is to be a memorial for World War I and II veterans, men and women.
It is hoped that sufficient funds can be solicited to pay off the debt and finance extensive remodeling.

8 From Spring Green in All-State Band
SPRING GREEN — Eight members of the Spring Green high school band were chosen to participate in the All-State Central band which will play at the Wisconsin Exposition in Milwaukee Sunday.
They are Nancy Lins, Joyce Urfer, Valerie Eder, Maxine McNurlin, Marion Eder, Elizabeth Richardson, Jackson Hockock, and Richard Thomas.
Summer band classes have been held for the last eight weeks, sponsored by the Spring Green village and school boards, under the direction of William Johnson, school band instructor.

12:45 p. m. — Baseball (WJJD): White Sox at New York.
3:45 p. m. — Robert Trender Or-

Highly recommended recordings among recent—and some not-so-recent—releases:
Beethoven, "Quartet No. 6 in B-Flat Major," recorded by the Budapest String quartet (Columbia) . . . Published when the composer Jack lustre in this performance.
"Louis Prima (Victor): "Bubble-Loo Bubble-Loo" vocal by Cathy Allen, and "The Sad Cowboy," vocal by Prima . . . Miss Allen is only fair, but there's some nice instrumental work on the first of these Carmichael ditties. "Cowboy" is a strong possibility for juke-box success.
"Tex Beneke (Victor): "A Woman Always Understands" and "Don't Blame Me," a pair of standard songs done in nice fashion—one pert, the other easy.

PLAY BY WOLFE: When the late Thomas Wolfe was an undergraduate at the University of North Carolina he was actively interested in the theater work done there, but his writing fame was then chiefly as a novelist and not as a playwright.
However, he wrote at least one full-length play, "Mannerhouse," and now that has been unearthed from his literary effects for a proposed Broadway production in the fall by New Stages, Inc.
"Mannerhouse" would be the third production on the New Stages list, being preceded by a Jean-Paul Sartre's "Death Without Burial" and Thornton Wilder adaptation of "Coriolanus."
"Mannerhouse" is described as dealing with the moral crisis confronting a southern household during the Civil War.

DISCS OF THE DAY: On the popular side . . .
"Eddie Heywood trio (Victor): "The Way You Look Tonight" and "The Moon Was Yellow" . . . Both sides feature Eddie's toptouch keyboarding and lots of originality.
"Vaughn Monroe (Victor): "If I Could Be the Sweathater of a Girl Like You" vocal by Vaughn and Moon Maida, and "It's My Lazy Day" vocal by Vaughn . . . Former's an old-style melody, done smoothly; latter has a western flavor.
"Columbia Orchestra (Columbia): "Fiddle Faddle," "Jazz Pizzicato" and "Jazz Legato" . . . "Fiddle Faddle" gets a full-bodied playing, but the other tunes (paired on the second side) will speak.

Vincent Youman's Music Library Goes to M-G-M

By EDITH GWYNN
HOLLYWOOD—After two years of negotiations, M-G-M will soon become the proud possessor of the Vincent Youman's library of music. And, to use a good old Gershwin question: "Who could ask for anything more?"
Cute little Barbara Bates is really on her screen way now by landing that ingenue lead in "Happy Times" with Danny Kaye. We were the first to yell for her to get some parts and not just publicity posing and we have her thank you notes to prove it.
"Runyon of Broadway" will go into production late this fall. Proceeds going to the Runyon Cancer Fund as part of the deal with Damon, Jr. . . The same ailment that smote Runyon down took the life of Babe Ruth. But Runyon refused to wear a tube in his throat (which would have enabled him to talk to some extent), while the beloved Babe did make use of such an instrument. That's why his voice sounded so strange on the radio appearances he made shortly before his death.
Zachary Scott is the latest in the star line-up for "Flamingo Road," which already boasts Jon Crawford and Sydney Greenstreet.
Nora Eddington, Errol Flynn's wife, has lots of ideas floating around in the pretty head of hers and one of them is to have a screen career of her own. Flynn never had any objection to this and Nora had a bit part in "Don Juan" with him. Now she has a definite offer from Warner Bros. and our guess is that Nora will go after (and get), just what she wants in the movies.
Martha Stewart has just signed a new five-year contract at Fox. But in the meantime she'll have 12 weeks off and will do a theater tour before returning for "Oh, You Beautiful Doll."
A spy reports from Paris that Eddie Contor overdid the tipping of waiters and musicians.
Ingrid Bergman has been spending quite (and secret) week-ends in Paris—mainly to get away from the not-so-gay London.
They are throwing a big testimonial dinner for Mack Sennett, one-time comedy king of Hollywood. It might be nicer if someone offered him a studio berth instead. He's only "retired" because nobody in years has come along with a job.
