knows you have a long holding in the suit you open. If the spot card is clearly higher than your fourth-best, your preference for a return is the higher-ranking of certain other suits. If it is clearly lower than your fourth-best, it asks for a lead of the lower-ranking of those suits.

one fine teacher who can practice what she preaches, and in the South the former Peggy Golder who is now the wife of Charles J. Solomon, chairman of the tournament committee of the American Contract Bridge league When Mrs. Solomon led the heart 2, Mrs. Peterson realized immediately that it was not a standard fourth-best. Mrs. Solomon's two bids of that suit had been of such a nature that it was absolutely certain she held more than four hearts. This being lower than the fourth-best, it was therefore a suit-preference signal and a request for a lead of the low-ranking side suit of clubs in Mrs. Peterson of course wor the opener with the heart A and returned the club 2 for a ruff.

The club K was bound to take a trick later, so the suit-preference lead, combined with obedience to the signal, caused the defeat of the one-trick-too-high contract
