SENATOR SOAPER SAYS:

NEVER did we expect to live to see the day when looking like only a million dollars was unhealthy.
STARVATION looms for the populace, if our topsoil disappears. We may have to dig it all back from carefully barbed suburban lawns to the farm.

PSYCHIATRISTS, taking it on themselves to explain anything, can doubtless pierce the

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
A SHORT time ago I wrote up a hand played by Mrs. Gertrude Jobs and Mrs. Augusta Cantor of New York City. They are sisters, and at that time they had just won their first major victory, the Eastern States mixed team of four championship. Just recently they went up to the Adirondack Inn at Sacandaga Park, N. Y., and won the Adirondack women's pair championship, also the special prize event of the tournament.

THE sisters gave me today's hand, on which they won a top score in the tournament. The bidding is worth a comment or two. Many players would open the South hand with a two-bid. Mrs. Cantor preferred the one-bid, because holding a singleton spade and diamond, she was sure there would be further bidding. She did not want to invite

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

IT IS THE most disgraceful thing in this country that the teachers are not adequately paid. Something must be done about it. There are conditions in nearly all our public schools where a teacher has so many pupils under her care she doesn't have time to learn all their names.
—President Truman.
