Answer to Question No. 1-

Answer to Question No. 1 Yes. Sociologists Burgess and Cottrell have shown the more education both have the greater the chances for marifed happi-ness, and that wide differences in education make marriage risky. However, they found it decidedly more important for happiness that the bride be well educated; than for the groom. Our booklet, "Predicting Your Married Happiness" sent at cost, 15c plus self-addressed, stamped envelope. stamped envelope.

Answer to Question No. 2 Answer to Question No. a No, because unfortunately-highly gifted parents and geniuses have few children. Also a man of genius often marries a mediocre woman and vice versa. We have to depend chiefly on the chance combinations of inthe chance combinations of an herited elements from numerous marriages of persons of sound sense and perhaps above aver-age intelligence.
