Get Court Aid in Filing

Two of the candidates who failed to file their campaign expense statements before the deadline Tuesday, today obtained court orders and filed their statements with the county clerk.

They were Robert W. Arthur, Democrat candidate for district attorney, and R. P. McCormick, Democrat. precipat attorney, and R. P. McCormick, Democrat, precinct committeeman from the 17th ward. Arthur listed expenses of $58.90 and Candidates who failed to file before deadline, have until next Tuesday to obtain a court or-der which will permit them to file expense statements and be candidates.

The British are importing fewer raw furs from the United States, it was reported recently in London. The imports dropped more than 350,000 pounds the first six months of this year, the English board of trade has an-

McCormick reported none.
