Q. When was the practice be gun of putting gold fringe around the Stars and Stripes

A. In 1895 the fringe was add ed to the Stars and Stripes for. all regiments of the Army. This is the first date when it was made official. Fringe seems to have been not seriously regard. nave been not seriously regard, ed before that time, as it was ignored in the Army Regulations; but gift colors to various regiments seem to have been fringed or not as the fancy struck the maker. Fringe is of no value, and has no significance and part of the flight, it is additionally to the significance of the flight in the significance. as a part of the flag, it is added merely for decoration.

2. Yes, from the standpoint of 2. Yes, from the standpoint of liveliness and action. Psychologist Dorothy Schullan collected college slang used by students in talking with each other—not with faculty or parents. "Cooking on the front burner," means being alert; "Hen-pen," a girls' private school; "May I borrow your frame for the next struggle?" May I have the next dance?; "Scrowge," a fluent kisser; "Sugar report," letter from his girl. Certainly expressive and varied! sive and varied!

Answer to Question No. 3. 3. A British psychologist made analyses of body motions in sev-eral games and concluded if you enjoy your old skill and feel con-fident you can take on a new game, your old skill may pos-sibly help you a little. That is,
