 10 a. m.—University of Wisconsin faculty pairings take another bow this month.
 The Ft. Wayne gallery of Ft. Wayne, Ind., will show works by members of the university's art education department during October.
 This will be the exhibit's first appearance of the year. It toured for the first time last year, when it went to Ohio university, the Milwaukee Public Library, the Wustem gallery in Racine, and the Manitowish Little gallery.
 Contributors are Donald M. Anderson, Mrs. Helen W. Anner, George A. Dietrich, Robert L. Griley, Frederick Lauritzen, Fred Logan, Dean J. Meeker, Alfred Sessler, Roland S. Stebbins, Cecil J. Strawn, John H. Wilde, and Santos Zoghale.
 Wisconsin is well represented on ABC these mornings. J. K. McCaffery, of "What Makes You Tick?" is from Madison and Tommy Bartlett, of "Welcome Travelers" is an ex-Milwaukeean.
 Bradley Kincaid, once the top hillbilly singer of radio, will appear on NBC-WIBA's "Grand Ole Opry" Saturday night.
 Jimmy Rurante has formed a partnership with Arthur Michaud, veteran talent agent, to operate a booking agency.
 Kay Starr will star in a new ABC show beginning next Monday night. She'll have an all-girl guesstar policy.
 Frank Morgan is reported working on script for a children's radio show.
 Ralph Edwards will have two shows a week soon. His new "This Is Your Life" will open on NBC Oct. 19.
 AT CENTRAL: Central high school's band has the largest enrollment in many years—75 members, the Madison Mirror (school newspaper) reports. David March, junior, is the new drum major.
 MAIL BAG: A note from Mrs. H. M.: "As one of the mothers concerned with the 'bus situation,' I want to add my thanks to the others you must have received for your mention of courtesy on buses.
 "I've really been extremely reluctant to let my daughter ride unescorted on the bus to and from school because of the undesirable situation existing. Thanks again."
 To Mrs. H. M.:
 And thanks to you.

Pearl Anniversary for Abbotts

Bud Abbott, film and radio comedian, prepares to cut 30th wedding anniversary cake in his Encino, Calif., home as a beaming Mrs. Abbott and their two children, Victoria Rae, 6, and Bud, Jr., 9, look on.
