Stan Kenton's band is the favorte this year as far as the nation's disc-jockeys are concerned. Tex Beneke ranks second, Tommy Dorsey third, Vaughn Monroe 4th and Harry James 5th, according to the second annual Disc Jockey Poll-conducted by Billboard magazine.

The jockeys voted King Cole's 'Nature Boy" as the best all-round record of the year. Bing Crosby is their favorite male vocalist, and Peggy Lee their No. 1 songstyess. Vic Damone and Patti Page are the most promising new vocalists and Elliott Lawrence, the most promising bandleader. They consider the Pied Pipers as the best vocal group

Dave Garroway of Chicago is the nation's best disc-jockey, according to the votes of his contemporaries. WOR's Bob Poole ranks second, Martin Block third and Fred Robbins fourth. And the jocks show a strong preference for Capitol Records over all other makes.

Hooper Ratings of disc-jockey shows in leading cities are disclosed for the flist time in Bill-board's new Disc Jockey Supplement. Martin Block has the high-est rating in New York (4.5) but Gil Newsome of KWK, St. Louis, walked off with the top rating in the nation-121.

ALL SET FOR SERIES

Although Red Barber heads the announcing staff for the World Series baseball games to be carried by WICC-MBS starting tomorrow at 12 45 p.m., it is not certain whether Mel Allen will the able to share the play-by-play reporting with Jim Britt, Mal. who covered vesterday's American League playoff game for WOR-MBS, was rushd to the hospital with a fever of 103 degrees after the game. Incidentally, WICC and other Yankee Network stations were prevented from carrying yes-terday's game because it was found at the last minute that the Atlantic-Narragansett network had exclusive rights to League games from Boston.

area will carry the Series games from Boston, starting tomorrow at 12:45, but it is not yet known whether the Cleve-iand games will be televised in this area. Attempts are being made to establish a strato-relay system whereby a B-29 superfortress would relay the games from the midwest to the eastern network. Video fans are hoping the Series broadcasts won't encounter the transmission difficulties that interrupted the telecast of yesterday's

RODDY SHULL AT DUKE
Roddy Shull, whose band of Harding High swingsters won national honors in New York a year or so ago, is now a student of Duke University at Durham, N. C., where he's taking a business course but devoting most of his spare time bop combo of his own.

This may be Dixie down here," he writes us, "but all I've heard so far is Bop! The real gone stuff at that."

The Duke Ambassadors is not an ordinary college band. It was started in 1935 by a student named Sonny Burke who has since become

Playing in the current group with Roddy is trombonist Tommy Farr who played with Dean Hudson, Tony Pastor and Woody Herman before the war.

CONDON SHOW MOVED

To avoid conflict with Milton Berle's Star Theater, Eddie Condon's Floor Show is moving back into its old Tuesday night spot on WPIX at 9:05 o'clock, Condon's show, featuring the outstanding jazzmen in the New York area, had been shifted to 8:30 where it bucked the second half of Berle's popular television show.

SWINGING THE RIPPLES Drummer Shelly Manne will rejoin Stan Kenton's band Thursday at Ottumwa, Iowa. . . . A short bob is the 'new look" on Anita O'Day who's knocking 'em dead at the Royal Roost with Dizzy Gillespie's band. . . . Jo Stafford has added a "mystery voice" gimmick to her Tuesday night NBC "Supper Club" show. . . . Nick Lucas, "Crooning Troubadour" of the late '20s, is emerging from obscurity with a Capitol Record reviving his hits of 20 years ago, "Side by Side" and "Tip Toe Through the Tulips". . . . Songstress Patti Page is due for a big buildup, thanks to her Mercury Records success. She's teamed with Vic Damone on a new disc, and she'll be guestarred on Vaughn Monroe's radio show Saturday night. Phil Moore, who used to have an instrumental foursome, is introduc-ing a 40-piece 'symphonic jazz' aggregation next month at Billy Berg's Hollywood night spot. . . . Because they wanted him to play nightly concerts of show music, Woody Herman cancelled his bookwoody Herman cancelled his booking at Chicago's Hotel Sherman and, instead, will open Oct. 28 for a month at the Royal Roost in Noo Yawk. . . . Addition of a way and the control of the c Yawk. . . . Addition of a Canadian quintet, Babs and the Bob-o-Links. to his band gives Tommy Dorsey cight vocalists. . . Ted Steele, carrying on as a WMCA discjockey, also does a television show for NBC and is resuming his bandleading activities nightly at the McAlpin. . . Babs Gonzales, bop vocalist, is joining Louis Jordan's band for a 30-week cross-country one of Hollywood's top music pro- tour. . . . King Guion, having ironed ducers, Bandleaders Gene Williams out his union difficulties, is planthythm band.

TO BLOCK ELOPEMENT

SAN DIEGO, Calif, Oct. 5 (AP) An ex-Army musician has cloped with an American girl-while pay ing nice compliments to a Pakistan beauty who had flown to America to visit at his home. Dick Cardwell, 24, told newsmen today he cloped Saturday with Shirley McFall. They went to Ajo, Arız., he said, because his parents opposed the marriage.

He said the Pakistan girl, Miss Ramona Hussey, whom he first met in India in 1944, 'is a fine girl and a real lady, and had nothing whatever to do with it"

Miss Hussey, 19-year-old beauty contest winner, said. "There was no romance. Dick and I were never engaged. I just came to visit his parents.

Cardwell said "I had four dates
