THE LOCK THAT LICKS THE WEATHER

You probably haven't thought of your roof on a battle ground . . . but that's just what it is! A constant battle is being waged up there between your roof and the weather. Sooner or later, of course, the weather will win out - K.O. ing the shingles that have held out so studily—and you will then have to send up "replace-, , , but the question is "How soon?" long can your present roof hold out? Is it in fighting condition now?

The new Barrett Anchor-Lok Shingles use a locking principle that's a bulwark of delense against the toughest weather. This newest shingle in the famous Barrett line is backed by 90 years of rooting experience "between the world and the weather."

These fine shingles are inexpensive, long-lastis and handsome. Why not phone or write for samples
