Limbering Up

Orpheum

(Reviewed by Keith Roberts) Frankie Carle shared spotlight land. honors with his singing daughter, Marjorie Hughes, on the Orpheum stage Tuesday.
During the first portion of his long show, he gave his attractive daughter a chance to display a pleasing voice on a group of popular tunes including "It's Magic," "You Call Everybody Darling," and "Rumors Are Flying."

Next the spotlight fell briefly on Billy Williams, the band's male on Billy Williams, the band's male vocalist, who sang "It Had to be You," and "A Tree in the Meadow," and finally shouted through a novelty Western number, "Living Western Style," complete with a yahoo singing background by the band.
