Answer to Question No. 1

YES | NO |

The outlook isn't good if necessary to make good cooks and housekeepers. A survey of 388 colleges and universities by heart, body and mind. the U. S. Education Office reveals that only 11 per cent of all the coeds are taking home economics courses. In 1945 the percentage was 13, and in 1941 17. What's going to become of mince pie, chicken with dumpling and juicy tender steaks if this keeps on and housekeeping—I shudder to think of it.

Answer to Question No. 2 No. Worry affects every organ, secretion and activity of body and mind. Prof. W. C. Allee, University of Chicago ani-mal psychologist, has shown even worried hens produce fewer eggs. We boys on the farm knew irritated, discontented cows gave poorer milk and less of it. Man reacts to worry in the same way. To do your best work—even good work—you must get rid of your worries. Answer to Question No. 3

Yes, it is one of the profound-est truths of psychosomatic (mind and body) medicine. The Golden Age Clubs, being formed in many cities of people over 65. are bringing thousands of old people back to a new youth. Joneses use good common sense in their votes, when they see the whole of the picture," says the league's sparkplug president, Anna Lord Strauss.

The league was founded 28 years ago by Carrie Chapman Catt and her co-workers to help women equip themselves to use their newly acquired vote effectively. Today it concentrates as much on the men's vote as much on the men's vote as the women's. Any man living laxes, secure in the knowledge that either way the popular choice will be catastrophe.
