Q. Is the space that surrounds the earth a vacuum? R. M. R.
A. Astronomers state that space is more devoid of matter than the most perfect vacuum obtainable in laboratories, and the temperature is virtually at absolute zero, 459.4 degrees below zero F. Space is dark and coundless.

Q. Are women generally over-weight after middle age? J. J. A. Half of all American women are 10 to 50 pounds over-weight at 50 years of age, ac-cording to the Life Extension Institute. Q. Is Chiang Ching-kuo the son by a former marriage of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek? A. General Chiang has been parried twice. The son is the child of his first marriage. A. At what distance should a book be held from the eyes during reading? G. R. L.

Q. Reading matter is best held 16 to 18 inches away, below the level of the eyes.

2. Yes, because their biggest job is developing balanced emotions and personalities in their pupils. Penn State psychologist W. U. Snyder shows teachers Q. Where are the wills of Martha and George Washington? F. R. M.

A. The wills are the property of the County of Fairfax, Va., and are in the courthouse there. Martha Washington's will was stolen during the Civil War and purchased by J. P. Morgan. After much litigation it was returned to the county authorities.

Job is developing balanced emotions and personalities in their pupils. Penn State psychologist W. U. Snyder shows teachers are no more maladjusted than people in general, yet they stored the county authorities.

Nev., has Arthur swoman. Most of his earlier marriages were contracted after short courtships with blondes whe had some Broadway show experience. The union with his seventh wife, Sunny Ainsworth, a 19-year-old southern girl, set some kind of a record even for Manville marriages. It blew sky-high just seven hours and 45 minutes after the smiling couple had exchanged vows.

Bandleader Artie Shaw recently tried to annul his sixth marking to their financial and matrimonial disputes out of court. Shaw dropped the annulment action and Mrs. Shaw withdrew her recounter-claim for separation and an accounting of joint funds. However, her lawyer said she probably would seek a divorce. Bandleader Artie Shaw recently tried to annul his sixth marriage to Kathleen Winsor, authoress of "Forever Amber."

This month the couple settled their financial and matrimonial disputes out of court. Shaw dropped the annulment action and Mrs. Shaw withdrew her counter-claim for separation and an accounting of joint funds. However, her lawyer said she probably would seek a divorce.

Another in the marrying stakes—among the well-known names—is 79-year-old Composer Joe Howard. His current bride is number eight. She says she's happy about her seven predecessors, because they turned him into such a "gentie, kind husband."

pils instantly discover and re-sent irritability, hastiness, ne-glect and emotional upsets in their teachers. I wonder how teachers keep out of the insane hospital with their frustrations from nunlis, narents, school nutrition expert Dr. C. M. Mc-Cay, because every married woman faces a good prospect of being a widow for eight years from pupils, parents, school boards, public spying, low salaries, etc. before her death. Women live three years longer than men on the average, and men tend to Answer to Question No. 3 marry women younger than themselves, although recently there is some tendency to reverse this. 3.
