There's a plot afoot at Metro to co-star Ginger Rogers and Freddie Astaire again real soon. The "plot" is that of Noel Coward's play. "Private Lives" which the studio will turn into a musical.

Starring picture, "Easy Does It"—a comical role—natch!

Deborah Kerr and her good-looking husband, Tony Bartley, are house-guesting Sir Archibald Mac Indoe, English plastle surgeon and founder of the renowned Guinea Pig Club of boys who have had their faces rebuilt by him. There'll be lots of Holly-wood parties in his honor.

Peggy Cummins will bring her brother, Harry, had-wood will turn into a musical.

He's planning to have it produced as a play before he parts with the picture rights.

Any time Roland Young comes back to town it's good news. Especially when it's work that brings him to Filmtown. He's just landed here once more to play a Pappillon with a small crew and what a beat! But he's preparing a jazz concert he'il do with a 52-piece symphonic orchestra. Put that under things to look forward to.

The Irish can't see "So Evil My Love." Censored.
