Crawford Beats Harbor Favorite in Bowl Fight

TWO of the top amateur lightweights in this area slugged and pounded each other for four fast and furious rounds last night in the main event of an action-packed six-bout amateur card at the Wilmington Bowl.

Willie Crawford, acclaimed as one of the top Simon pure 132. pounders in Los Angeles, invaded the Bowl to take on Tony Confighter, and Crawford emerged the winner after the two boys lacruped each other around the ring in a regular rough and tumble brawl.
