Tax Cut Bill Author

Higher Corporate Levy

WASHINGTON --- (U.P.) --- Rep.

Harold Knutson (R-Minn.) said today he has come around to the belief that corporation taxes will have to be increased.

But the retiring chairman of the tax-writing house ways and means committee doesn't think the excess profits tax on corporations should be restored, as Pres.

Knutson, author of the last in ield about $1,100,000,000 a year

The Minnesotan, who was defeated for reelection Nov. 2, con-ceded that a number of the larg-er corporations "are making too much money." He cited the steel industry as an example. But he said an excess profits tax would "put husiness in a tailspin."

"I think we're in a position now where it would take very
