

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

10:30 a.m.—W-G-N—Northwestern Reviewing Stand: "Should the United Nations Be Revised into a Federal World Government?"
Speakers: Ely Culbertson, Clark Eichelberger, and Malcolm Proudfoot.

12:30 p.m.—WMAQ—University of Chicago Round Table: Discussion.

12:55—WIND—Football: Bears vs. Yanks.

1:30—WCFL—Cardinals vs. Los Angeles Rams.

1:45—WGN-TV—Telecast of Fenwick-DePaul championship game.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

2:30 p.m.—W-G-N—Dress Up Quiz: Casts of "Brigadoon" and "High Button Shoes" compete.

3:00—WMAQ—Quiz Kids, with Joe Kelly as master of ceremonies.

3:30—W-G-N—True Detective Mysteries: "The End of Mr. Gilroy."

5:00—W-G-N—Roy Rogers eats turkey and gets involved in a chase for stolen gold.

5:30—WENR—Greatest Story Ever Told, Biblical series.

6:00—WMAQ—Jack Benny, with Rochester and Mary Livingstone.

6:30—WBBM—Amos 'n' Andy are involved in more humorous entanglements.

7:00—WMAQ—McCarthy and Bergen, with the Bickersons.

7:30—WMAQ—Fred Allen welcomes a visit from Burl Ives.

8:00—WBBM—Electric Theater: Helen Hayes in "Sobbin' Women."

8:30—WLS—Theater Guild presents "The Winslow Boy."

9:30—WMAQ—Horace Heidt conducts another amateur session.

MUSIC

12:30 p.m.—W-G-N—American Radio Warblers, with Preston Sellers.

2:00—WBBM—New York Philharmonic: Arturo Michelangeli makes American radio debut in Schumann's Piano Concerto in A Minor. Orchestra, directed by Dimitri Mitropoulos, airs Mendelssohn's "Scotch" Symphony.

8:30—WMAQ—American Album of Familiar Music, with Donald Dame.

TELEVISION

8:00 p.m.—WGN-TV—Cross Question, dramatization of court session.

8:00—WNBQ—Television Playhouse stars Ralph Bellamy in "This Thing Called Love."