Gordon Haldiman, blind trombonist who was soloist with the University of Wisconsin concert band from 1940 to 1943, will be guest artist with the Central high school orchestra in an auditorium program today.

The Russian club of the University of Wisconsin has invited all Madisonians interested in Russian culture to become "honorary members." The active membership comes from faculty members and students of the University's Russian department... The club will present a Russian movie with English subtitles, "Adventure in Bakhran," at 7 p. m. Monday in the Play Circle. Admission will be limited to club members, active and honorary—but you can become one of the latter just by getting a membership card at 97 Bascom hall or at the Play Circle door Monday night.

Meredith Wilson's folk singers, Josef Marais and Miranda, are doubling from his Wednesday night ABC shows into a Hollywood club date at Felix Young's. Bob Elson, veteran network sportscaster, has been chosen for the narration on the 1948 World Series motion pictures.

On Dec. 26 "The Festival of Song" will switch from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. over CBS and the "Symphonette" will be heard on the earlier period.

"Mayor of the Town" with Lionel Barrymore, may replace Gabriel Heatter's "Behind the Front Page" show, now heard Sundays over CBS.

Friday broadcasts indefinitely. "I feel," he said, "that our performances will be better and brighter if the scripts seem fresh to us. Doing a preview often means that the run-in is the best show and that the actual broadcast suffers because of it."

Shirley Mitchell's two appearances on "The Great Gildersleeve" show this month were received so enthusiastically that agency execs are whipping up a contract to feature her regularly as "Leila Ransome" beginning in January. Una Merkel will remain as "Adeleine Fairchild."

Chet (Lum) Lauck of "Lum and Abner" has added 82,000 acres to his ranch near Las Vegas, Nev. His total acreage there now is 225,000, devoted to cattle raising.

Mrs. Lauritzen is the wife of a University of Wisconsin instructor in art education. The show will close Dec. 12, then will go on a circuit tour for almost a year, closing in Memphis next November. This is Mrs. Lauritzen's third successive year in the exhibition.

How Dr. Edwards' Helps Folks Who Are Constipated
For over 40 years, Dr. F. M. Edwards, a noted Ohio Doctor, successfully relieved patients bothered by constipation and its headaches, lack of pep, dull eyes, yellow skin, with his famous Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.
Olive Tablets are purely vegetable. They work gently but oh—so thoroughly! Olive Tablets pep up a sluggish intestinal tract. They act on both upper and lower bowels. Just see if Olive Tablets don't give you the most comfortable, satisfactory, more natural-like bowel movements you've ever had! No griping.

Hollywood

By Edith Guyann

It's ag'in our principles to "keep writing about the same people all the time," but why toss a perfectly good news bit away just because the gas was mentioned a few days ago? This is about Judy Garland's baby dotter, Liza, aged 3 in March, who will make her movie debut with Momma in "Good Old Summertime," now in production. After that she's going to have a "bigger part" in "Annie Get Your Gun"—and what's more she has an agent, Veb-Carleton Alop, who handles the career of Garland and spouse, Vincente Minelli.

Rudy Vallee has acquired the rights to make a television-movie series of that "Life in These United States" feature in Readers Digest. Work on same starts within the month.

Pee-wee people found anything very amusing in Jeanne Crain's finally getting around to pick up $19,000 worth of bonds due her for some time. Too many are remembering to pick up their $19 unemp'lyment compensation around here.

The whole thing was reminiscent of a similar incident in which Lauren Bacall figured—and which was also splashed all over the papers—Jimmy Cross, husband of Peggy Ryan, is about to sign a writer-actor pact at Universal.

his friends don't know Joe since he lost his money; and the other half doesn't know he's lost it!" Adolph Menjou and his wife Vera Pesdale, are thinking about doing a play together in Manhattan.

The gal who is singing commercials on the Jack Smith show is Jennie McKeon, a recording and radio vocalist herself at one time. Bonnie ("Oh Johnny") Baker has been doing ditto for some time.

John Wayne has bought another south sea story, "White Native," by Doris Roth, who lived in the islands for 13 years.

Latest to form his own independent producing company is Wild Bill Elliott, the cowboy star. His pictures will be released through Republic, and the first is "Hellfire," which will be made in color.

"Wuthering Heights," which we trust was one of your favorite fillums, is about to become an opera. Composer Bernard Herman is in the East putting the finishing touches on his grand opera version of the Bronie classic. He's been secretly working on it for the past two years.
