Q. Will the states that have increased their population greatly, for example California, be entitled to more Representatives in the U. S. Congress? N. C. U. A. On the basis of its increased population California may be entitled to at least 7 additional Con-gressmen when the new appor-tionment is made at the next census in 1950.

Q. What is the "Gullah" dia-lect? F. F.

A. The Gullah or Geechee dialect is spoken by Negroes of Georgia and South Carolina, and is the only dialect that is not in-telligible over the country. The origin of the name is uncertain but probably is connected with the name of a tribe or language

Q. What is the derivation of the name Boston? J. A. H. A. The city of Poston, Mass., is named after Boston, England, whose name is a corruption of Botolph's Town, Saint Botolph having founded an abbey there.

Q. Is there a simple way to restore the gloss on rubbers after it has worn off? T. R. E.

A. According to the Chemical Formulary edited by H. Bennett (Chemical Publishing Co. Inc., 1948) the initial gloss of rubbers can be restored by cleaning with a slightly damp rag and then applying with a clean soft rag, sponge or brush a solution made, Sam. "A deed to a cemetery up of glycerin 100, water 100 and perfume if desired."

"That's Minnie, all right," said Sam. "She has a mind of her own, and to hear Max, her husband tell it, she's welcome to it. By the way, did you hear that their marriage almost went on the rocks not long ago?" "How come?"

"It was on account of a birthday present he gave her," said sponge or brush a solution made, Sam. "A deed to a cemetery up of glycerin 100, water 100 and perfume if desired.
