Orpheim
Feature: Road House.
Type: Drama.
Cast: Lily Stevens, Ida Lupino, Pete Morgan, Cornel Wilde, Susie Celeste Holm; and Jetty, Richard Widmark.
Reviewer: Jean Behling.
Story: Lily Stevens, Chicago entertainer, blows into a small town near the Canadian border as one of Jetty's latest ideas in the "entertainer" line for his road house. Pete, business manager, tries to deport Lily immediately. She resists, becomes the new blues-singing sensation and Jetty's girl to the town's way of thinking. Lily thinks differently breaks through Pete's icy reserve while Jetty is on a hunting trip. They plan to marry. The spoiled, egotistical Jetty tells Pete to get out, then has him arrested for stealing, and from there on in the picture is a "fight to the finish" with aid from Susie, the cashier who carried a torch for Pete.
High Points: Widmark's usual sadistic and appealing portrayal of an egotistical maniac... Lupino's flippant air and her "best singing without a voice"... a slightly chubby Celeste Holm as the small-town girl friend... the blood and thunder fight... Low Points: The slow build-up to the inevitable boy-gets-best-friend's-girl routine.
Verdict: Pretty good, and pretty unusual in spots for the theme.

THE GERKES: Julie and Juliette Gerke, Madison twins, will give a duo-piano recital Saturday night at the Christmas party and 23rd anniversary of the Ra-

Theater Guild
Costumes of medieval style will add to the color of "Sleeping Beauty," the fairy-tale drama which the Madison Theater Guild will present Saturday in East high school. Performances will begin at 10 a. m. and 2:15 p. m.
Director Geraldine Ryan designed the costumes, and Mrs. Andrew R. Maller selected most of the material in Chicago; she is costume chairman for the play. Mrs. Thomas Christopher did the cutting. The sewing was handled by a large committee, including Mrs. Virginia Swenson, Mrs. Putnam Odell, Mrs. John Stewart Curry, Mrs. Walter E. Malec, Mrs. Keith L. Parker, Mrs. Ed Geier, Cleo Dunn Sammis, Mrs. Paul Geisler, Libby Wittwer, and Mrs. Philip Intravala.
A regal setting for the play has been provided by the stage committee, of which J. Pyfe Erickson is chairman, and properties to enhance the court aspect have been collected by a committee headed by Mrs. Eleanor R. Grant.
Season-ticket holders may obtain tickets by presenting "Sleeping Beauty" stubs at the box office. Single admission tickets for both children and adults will be on sale at the door.
The play will be repeated Saturday, Dec. 18, in West high school.

MEDEA: Gertrude E. Johnson, professor emerita of speech at the University of Wisconsin, will play the title role in a reading of Euripides' "Medea" over WHA at 11 a. m. next Friday. Members of WHA Players who will complete the cast are Carole Branley, Cliff Roberts, Gary Nathanson, and Ray Stanley.
The production will be a part of Prof. Philo M. Buck's course on "The Five Epochs of Tragedy," broadcast at 11 a. m. Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays in the Wisconsin College of the Air.
Buck will return to the air Monday after a seven-week illness. He will lecture Monday and Wednesday on "Medea."
THE GERKES: Julie and Juliette Gerke, Madison twins, will give a duo-piano recital Saturday night at the Christmas party and 23rd anniversary of the Ra-
