the air overhead caused me to flatten out involuntarily—but not too involuntarily.

The overweight colonel, turned into a lifelong philosopher 25 years before when he had wiped out a German machine gun nest single-handed in the First World War, paid no attention whatever to the gun fire. It was his shaky legs and shortness of breath meedle of a sewing machine.

By Gladys Parker

In those days when the war may pack in my memory.

In those days when the war was young, the battles were being fought by battalions instead of whole armies, and the papers at home were eager to papers at home were eager to print the names of individual soldiers in action. So I crawled toward him, wishing at every discoveries like the above. toward him, wishing at every inch I was back in a nice safe

Manhattan subway.

Suit, Not Putt, Dropped Now, unfortunately, the case THE AFICIONADOS of the

THE AFICIONADOS of the courtroom, who always sigh with regret when a particularly provocative case is settled out of court, had reason to sign—yesterday. One of the pleasantest controversies in some time was resolved in private negotiation.

A Mr. Vicka who was vacaresolved in private negotiation.

A Mr. Fiske, who was vacationing in Phoenix, Ariz., last winter, had sued a Mr. Garcy, also vacationing in Phoenix, for the sizable sum of $150,000. Mr. Garcy, Mr. Fiske charged, had attacked him with a putter during a round of golf. Mr. Garcy promptly filed a countersuit, also for $150,000, charging Mr. Fiske with an even worse crime. Mr. ready to look a gift word in the origin, was not so sure of the Weather Bureau's precedence. In his "American Language, Supplement One," Mencken indicates the word was current in England for 20 years before it with an even worse crime. Mr. Fiske, according to the charge, had tickled him while he was attempting a putt. incates the word was current in England for 20 years before it crossed the ocean and cites the "New English Dictionary" at-tribution of the word's invention than they already are. "I'd hate to do it, but after all, Joe did sneeze on my follow-through on the dog-leg twelfth, and in Fiske vs. Garcy they awarded $100,000 for . . ." No, it's just as well.—Baltimore Sun.
