Hollywood

By Edith Cuyman

That beautiful hilltop house of Arline Judge, for which she's long been asking $90,000, has finally been sold. Got her price, too. The swimming pool at that place almost spills over the side of the mountain — and what a view!

John Gunther's new "Death Be Not Proud" will be in the book-stalls come spring. It's about his son who died at the age of 17.

Now that the Petrillo ban has been lifted, we hope Sinatra will wax "My Darling, My Darling," "Remember April," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and a few hundred others he's never recorded and which we were heckling him about the other eve. Believe it or not, but Frankie gave a real, honest-to-goodness stag party at the Naples restaurant — absolutely no dolls!

They've been searching frantically for a leading lady for Humphrey Bogart's "Tokyo Joe," which is all ready to go. Our bet (based on a little Gwyneth Paltrow information) is that the role will go to Florence Marley, the Viennese import who played opposite Ray Milland in "The Verdict," when she was briefly under contract to Paramount.

However, Gaby Andru, who hails from France, is also being considered. With "Career Girl" practically set as Jane Wyman's next at Warner's, this studio is also planning a second movie glamorizing a New York working girl in "Gay Decisions." The latter is intended for Lauren Bacall — when she stops putting.

Producer Ben Bogus is patting himself on the back for signing Ellen Drew to co-star with John Payne in "The Crooked Way." After viewing the first rushes on the picture, he thinks it will make her a top star.

We get lots of nutty calls, but the other day someone phoned to ask what to do with an extra cat! We said, "Get some extra mice!" Marlon Brando, male star of Gene Kelly and his ever-lovin' Betsy Blair are back here from Europe. He starts in "On a Town" soon. Spike Jones and his nutty crew go into the air-space just ahead of Jack Benny, at the time J.B. starts his million dollar stint with CBS, Jan. 2.

Even though Edgar Bergen announced his "temporary retirement" from all radio, don't fall down dead with surprise if you suddenly read that Edgar, too, has signed with CBS for next season — in a Sunday night spot — and for a stupendous sum.

Marguerite Chapman, who marries attorney Bentley Ryan next week, isn't giving up pictures just because he's so rich and pretty. But she will give more attention to the family fireside for the next few months.

Best news we've heard in a long time is that Columbia is about to re-issue "The More the Merrier" (which starred Jean Arthur, Charles Coburn, Joel McCrea) — one of the most delightful pictures ever made.
