Answer to Question No. 1
Yes. From the Moffatt translation the following proverbs have been culled by the leaflet "Guideposts": "A rare find is an able wife—she is worth far more than rubies. Her husband may depend on her (can he?). She finds industry is profitable. She keeps an eye on her household; she never eats the bread of idleness (unless she plays bridge Answer to Question No. 1 hold; she never eats the bread of idleness (unless she plays bridge five afternoons a week—then her husband eats it). For husbands: Charms may wane and beauty wither, keep your praise for a wife with brains. Give her due credit for her deeds, praise her in public for her services."
