In other words, have you ever dreamed about chucking it all for a few months and taking a trip around the world?

Of course you have but, life of course you have but, life being the cockeyed thing it is, chances are you never got to the passport stage—either there was a payment due on the mortgage, you were afraid you'd blow your job, or you wanted to wait until Susie hooked herself a husband.

Well, let me introduce you to a Lucky Luke who finally upped and did it—walked straight into and did it—walked straight into the Thomas Cook travel agency and said. "Two from New York to New York." Yep, after years of working as if Philip Murray had never happened, I recently went into conference with my-self and said, "Listen, chum, you'd better stop and catch your breath while there's still some
