SOME DRIVING HINTS CHICAGO—(U.P.)—The National Safety Council's committee on winter driving hazards recommends these rules for safe driv-ing under winter conditions: ONE. Get the "feel" of the road before you start out.

TWO. Adjust speed to road, weather, and traffic.
THREE. Use tire chains on ice FOUR. Keep windshield and collector.

The painting was done about 1568 by the Italian artist and is praised as a typical example of his richness and depth of color and free technique.

Windows clear.

FIVE. Pump your brakes on snow or ice—don't lock wheels.

SIX. Follow at a safe distance. It takes three to 12 times more distance to stop on snow or ice.

Physician ShouldCheck Throat 'Frog'

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Most of us, at one time or another, have suffered from an at-tack of hoarseness. It should not be slighted for the kind of hoarseness which continues for several weeks is a disturbing symptom and one which requires prompt investigation.

This throat condition may be due to a number of things. It may even be due to a tumor of the vocal cords in the larynx or voice-box and such an ailment should not be neglected.

Unfortunately it is not always possible to tell by an ordinary examination exactly what type of tumor is present. Therefore, it may be advisable that in these difficult-to-diagnose cases, a bit of the tumor be removed for examination under the microscore.

amination under the microscope.

Types of Growth

There are several types of tumor growth in children. One of them is known as papillomatosis.

This is a difficult disorder to treat.

When hoarseness that lasts more failure day or two occurs, there is always need to consult your doctor. He may even suggest that farm program director, will speak farm program dir

Prof. Bliss recently returned from Korea where he served six months with the military government's occupation forces as an agricultural consultant to the Seoul National university. His A. R.: I have had pains in the left side of my chest. My doctor told me I have a toxic goiter. Is it possible for this to cause such pains in the chest?

Answer: A toxic goiter can produce severe damage to the heart and such symptoms as pain in the chest.

The goiter should be treated promptly by your physician. Operation may be required.

Adele Stahl, director of the state bureau of nursing education, will speak on "Personal Relations" at the Third District Nurses assn., meeting Jan. 11 at 8 p. m. in McConnell hall, 1010 Mound st.

After her talk, "reminders" from the American Journal of Nursing committee will be given.
