Hollywood

By Edith Guynn

Jane Wyman's next opus—well, anyway a scheduled opus—will be "Man Running," which Alfred Hitchcock will direct. Whether it will be filmed before "Career Girl," supposedly set for a spring start, we dunno. "Man Running" will be made in England, even though its original locale was Canada.

No matter what plans you may have read of regarding John Fontaine and spouse, Bill Dozier, the thing they're concentrating on at the moment is a way to use up those well known "frozen" funds in foreign countries. One "foreign country" these two have funds in is Hawaii—and it is a bad place to go to spend money? We're only kidding, in a sense—but seriously, these two are thinking about producing their next, "A Very Remarkable Fellow" on Honolulu soil. The real meat about the place, so instead of going to Mexico, or Italy, etc., where shekels from their "You Gotta Stay Happy" are piling up, they may take a Hollywood cast and crew to the Hawaiian islands to film this one, which at the moment is next on their joint production schedule.

James Gleason, whose swiftest character-acting we haven't heard of for at least five minutes, has just signed for a featured role with Bill Powell and Shelley Winters. Boyoboy! You should hear about the scene-stealing that's going on over at 20th-Fox on the sets of "Come to the Stable." Loretta Young and Celeste Holm are the stars of this one, but Elsa Lanchester, playing a colorful role in it, is nabbing the spotlight (and the camera) to such an extent that the atmosphere is getting even cooler than the weather. And the weather hereabouts, we don't have to tell you, is very "unseasonal."

Martha Scott and John Beal, who played it on E-way, will be talking to the road with a stage-tour of "Voice of the Turtle" any minute.

The 10th annual Madison Artist's exhibition, sponsored by the Madison Art Assn., will be held Feb. 6 to 28 at the Madison Free Library. A preview and tea for artists and association members will open the show Feb. 6; public display will begin Feb. 7.

Prizes totaling $430 will be awarded for paintings and graphics by artists who live in or near Madison. Entries will be received Friday, Feb. 4.

Charles LeClair, painter who teaches at the Pennsylvania College for Women, Pitsburgh, will be the judge.

The prizes: $100 award of excellence for the most meritorious work; Oscar Mayer purchase prize of $100 for the best painting in oil, selected on the basis of its adaptability for school use; Harry S. Manchester award of $50 for first place in water color; Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hefty award of merit, $50; Arthur Howell award of $25 for most meritorious work in graphic art; Joe Rothschild award of $25 for most meritorious work in ceramics; Madison Art Assn. awards of $35, $25, and $20. Fritz Carpenter is chairman of the gallery committee arranging the show.

long-playing (LP) turntables, set at 33 1/3 revolutions per minute. The 7-inchers will sell for less than the 10-inch or 12-inch records carrying the same music.

DeForest Pair Mark 40th Date DE FOREST—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nordness will observe their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday with an open house from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m. in the same house they were married in. The couple's farm home in which they were married is located three miles west of De Forest in Norway Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Nordness were born in the Norway Grove community and have farmed in the area all their married lives. They are the parents of two boys, Emery, Viroqua, and Gerhard, Washington, D. C., and two girls, Mrs. Paul B. Weedman, Guantánamo Bay, Cuba, and Mrs. Cliff Ewings, Madison.

Work Done in Vernon VIROQUA—Bituminous and crushed stone surfacing, guard railing, drainage, grading and the construction of a wayside park on the Stoddard-Genoa route were the improvements made on Vernon county highways during 1948 at a cost of $699,700, the highway department announced today.

MUSIC: Effective this week, WIBA is changing its schedule of rebroadcasts of NBC Symphony orchestra concerts. In the past, the Saturday programs have been recorded for airing Monday nights. Tonight, however, there will not be an NBC Symphony concert on the station; instead, the Jan. 8 program will be aired next Saturday afternoon just ahead of "Orchestra of the Nation," giving music lovers a full two-hour schedule of symphonic music.

RECORDS: Newest development in the phonograph picture is Columbia's announcement of 7-inch microgroove records. The small disc, in non-breakable plastic, plays as long as a conventional 10-inch or 12-inch single. And it can be used on existing
