

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

7:30 p. m.—WENR—America's Town Meeting: "What's Behind the Crisis in Indonesia?" Speakers: Dr. Soemitro, Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, Dr. Jom Broek, and Robert Aura Smith.

9:00—W-G-N-WGNB—American Forum of the Air: "What Pricing Policies Will Best Promote Competition?" Participants: Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R., Ind.) and Walter B. Wooden, general counsel, Federal Trade Commission.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

6:30 p. m.—WLS—David Harding, Counter Spy, starring Don McLaughlin.

7:00—W-G-N-WGNB—George O'Hanlon in another embarrassing situation.

7:00—WBBM—Mystery Theater: "The Double Motive Murder Case."

7:00—WMAQ—This Is Your Life, with Ralph Edwards.

7:30—W-G-N-WGNB—Official Detective: "An Eye for an Eye."

7:30—WBBM—Mr. and Mrs. North take a long walk into trouble.

7:30—WMAQ—Alan Young Show with Jim Backus, Nicodemus Stewart, and the Alan Youngsters (Premiere).

8:00—WMAQ—Bob Hope, with Irene Ryan, Doris Day, and Bill Farrell.

8:30—WMAQ—Flibber McGee and Molly, with Bill Thompson.

9:00—WMAQ—Big Town, with Edward Pawley and Fran Carlton.

9:30—WMAQ—People are Funny, with Art Linkletter.

MUSIC

8:00 p. m.—WBBM—Melody Lane, with Pamela Britton, star of "Brigadoon," as guest.

8:45—WENR—Detroit Symphony, directed by Dr. Karl Krueger, offers Tschalkowsky's "Symphony No. 4 in F Minor, Op. 36."

9:30—W-G-N, WGNB—The Northerners, with Adele Norman, featured soloist, singing Schubert's "Serenade."

TELEVISION

8:15 p. m.—WGN-TV—Personality Profiles: Dorsey Connors will have as guests members of the cast of "Mister Roberts."

8:15—WBKB—Midget Boxing, with Jim Ameche.

8:30—WGN-TV, WENR-TV, WBKB, and WNBQ present a special broadcast of east coast-midwest cable opening.