Q. Why were General Short and Admiral Kimmel not courtmartialed after the blame for the disaster at Pearl Harbor was placed chiefly upon them? W. T. J.

A. On Jan. 13, 1948, the Army revealed that Gen. Walter C. Short and Rear Adm. Husband E. Kimmel had both been retired and could not be court-martialed because the time limit on action against them as set by Congress had expired on June 30, 1947.

Q. When Washington, D. C., was captured by the British dur-ing the War of 1812, how long did the invaders hold the city? R. E. D.

A. The occupation of Washington by the British lasted only one day for the enemy, finding the National Capital undefended and the heads of the government gone, feared a trick and evacuat-ed on Aug. 25, 1814, the day aft-er the Capitol had been burned.

Q. Where is the lake that is known as the Dead Sea of Amera? V.O.E. A. Mono Lake in Mono National Park, Calif., is so called because of its alkaline waters. It lies at an elevation of 6426 feet in the Sierra Nevada Mounlin? Y. S. O.

A. On the night of Oct. 1, 1939, four British bombing planes flew over Berlin and dropped pamphlets, but it was not until Aug. 25, 1940, that bombs were dropped on Berlin. On that night 39 British aircraft dropped 22 tons of bombs.
