London Priest Weds, Is Excommunicated

LONDON (U.P.) — A Roman Catholic priest who renounced his vows to marry the woman he loved was excommunicated today along with his bride.
The secretary of the Roman Catholic archbishop of Cardiff said the excommunication of Timothy Coakley, 35, and Patricia Ball, 23, was automatic.
The two wed Thursday in London and left on a honeymoon immediately following a sendoff by members of Coakley's former parish.
Coakley, hatless and with a red carnation in his buttonhole, appeared in the registry office in a business suit and dark topcoat. A short time later his pretty dark-haired bride arrived accompanied by her brother and two friends.
In a few minutes the wedding ceremony was over and the couple dashed through a crowd of well-wishers into a waiting taxi.
