She's Wearing a Halo-Ette

Ann Miller wears halo-ettes, Hollywood's newest fashion idea on a charming headgear to match any type of costume. The dancing star says they are lovely to look at, easy to wear, and can be adjusted in many intriguing ways.

Dawn Ruth Altman 13, of Gregory, Tex., listens attentively from her sick bed to lesson recitations going on in the eighth grade classroom at Gregory high school.

When she was stricken with rheumatic fever, school officials and her mother, Mrs. Ruth Altman, chief operator at the independent exchange in Gregory, installed the telephone in the classroom so that Dawn could keep up with her studies while recovering from the disease. (AP Photo)

Employe Charged With Paycheck Theft

William R. Sutton, 45, of 1841 Helena st., pleaded not guilty in superior court Monday to charges of forging an endorsement and cashing a Ray-O-Vac Co, paycheck which had been issued to Arthur Rettenmund.

He was released on $500 bail pending preliminary hearing Feb.

Sutton was arrested after Detective Bennett Nason compared the endorsement signature on the check with the handwriting of about 45 Ray-O-Vac employes who used the locker room from which the check was stolen The check was cashed at Eddy' tavern, 2129 Atwood ave.
