night when smoke poured into the house.

Yule interrupted the show during the first act to explain that the smoke was being drawn into the ventilating system from a fire in an adjacent building, About 45 persons left the theater but the rest sat out the performance. Yule is the father of Movie Star Mickey Rooney.

The fire was confined to the southeast corner of the sixth and seventh floors of an office build-ing at 35 S. Dearborn, in the heart of the loop. Second Deputy Fire Marshal Otto Dahl, who Fire Marshal Otto Dahl, wno said the cause was undetermined, estimated the damage at $8,000.

"Life and Loves of Tschai-"

A display of African sculpture from the personal collection of William R. Bascom, professor of anthropology at Northwestern university, opened Tuesday in the Wisconsin Union theater gallery and main lounge. The show, sponsored by the Union gallery committee, will be up until Mar. 22. The pieces were collected during four trips to British We's tafrica between 1937 and 1945 and represent the work of three important Guinea Coast peoples of West Africa; the Ashanti of the Gold Coast and the Yoruba and Ibo of Nigeria.

"Life and Loves of Tschai-kowsky," which will be at the Madison today and Thursday, is a German-made film with English titles. Music in the movie includes the "Pathetique" symphony and other works of the Russian composer.

Graduate students at the University of Wisconsin will conduct gallery tours of the "Old Masters from the Metropolitan" exhibition, Chairman Fred Logan of the university art education department has announced. The tours, open to the public, will be at 8:15 p. m. daily through Mar. 6. At-tendance at each will be limited to 25; tickets are available at the Memorial Union desk. Tour conductors will be Constance Ford, Gloversville, N. Y.; Joan Morgan, Milwaukee; May Robertson,
