The San Gabriel home had its inception in Long Beach under the superintendency of L. D. Massey. Later it was given to the Christian Church Brother hood of California and moved to San Gabriel where a beautiful modern home was erected. It has been maintained by the State Convention of Christian Convention of Christian Churches of Southern California. There are 70 guests at the home at present.

Rev. Tinsley and the young people will have a picnic lunch en route and will return in time for the evening discussion groups at East Side Church.

"The Secret Teachings of Jesus" will be the title of the free oublic lecture Monday evening at 3 o'clock in Masonic temple, 835 Locust Ave. by Harold Hershemow, of the Rosicrucian Order, AMORG. He will discuss the two great "blank" periods in the life of Jesus of Nazareth to the age of 12 and then between 12 and 30. Rosicrucians contend that dur-ing these periods Jesus was traveling through the Orient, ob-serving the various schools and peoples, and gathering knowledge essential to his mission. It is claimed also that Jesus conducted a secret school for His disciples and others, in which certain impstical techniques were taught.
