THOUGHTS

I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.—Ecclesiastes 3:12

Wondrous is the strength of cheerfulness, and its power of endurance—the cheerful man will do more in the same time, will do it better, will persevere in it longer, than the sad or sullen.—Carlyle.

A. The Fish and Wildlife Service says that the handling of young wild rabbits will not cause the mother to desert them, unless the nest is torn up when the young are taken out, in which case she may leave them. When the tagging of the young of the wild cottontail is done in connection with conservation work, no undue mortality of the young is observed, as would occur if the mother deserted them.
