Spring is traditionally the season for college choruses to tour, and this is no exception. Besides providing good music, these groups emphasize the high quality of training being given in large and small universities and colleges. So far, we have had the Milton College choir and the Nordic Cathedral choir of Luther college.

Clemency Asked for Life Termer

Atty. Laurence W. Hall, Madison, asked for executive clemency Wednesday afternoon for James Riley, Marshall, who was given a life term at Waupun in 1943 by a Dane county circuit court jury for first degree murder.
