He's Needled, Files Claim

Army doctors left a needle and thread inside of him when he was operated on overseas in 1944, says veteran John Galvin, who has lodged a $15,000 claim with congress, alleging he is permanently disabled. The needle is embedded in his abdomen too deep to be removed and in danger of puncturing a vital organ, it is claimed. He is from Hoosick Falls, N. Y. (International Sound-

Dog Track Interests Wandering Steers

JACKSONVILLE — (U.P.)

Eighteen wild-eyed steers broke from a standing freight train Saturday and stampeded through the plush Riverside suburb.

Early efforts to corral the beef resulted in only two captures.

To roam there.

Mrs. M. G. McRainie was knocked unconscious by a lung-ling steer.

Police said they charged anything in their path, including a cast-iron wrecking bar.

It was bent.

The remaining 16 hit for the dog race track and seemed content to roam there.
