Church Notes Its Fifth Year

First Christian Church of Hollydale will observe its fifth anniversary this week-end, according to the pastor, Rev. H. Harris Wood.

It was on March 26, 1944, that the chapel unit of the church plant was dedicated, climaxing many months of work directed by the Christian Missionary of Southern California, department of the State Convention of Christian Churches, (Disciples) and in co-operation with the congregation of Gloria Gardens Christian Church. The congregation was aided by the Missionary Society until the barana calforn.

tion was aided by the Missionary Society until it became self-supporting and assumed title to the property.

Two major projects have been undertaken, supplementing the original equipment, an additional building for educational and social purposes, and then an additional lot adjoining the original property was purchased to complete the block long frontage on Paramount Blvd.

Rosalie Ashley, soprano.
