Mystery Ended For centuries, millions of Pin-Worm victims have deeperately sought a way to deal with these peats that live in the human body.

A new, acientific treatment, Jayne's P-W Vermifuge, now offers real relief. P-Ws vital ingredient is a medically-approved drug that attacks Pin-Worms in the intestines and removes them from the body.

So watch for warning signs, especially the tormenting restal itch. Then ask your druggist for P-W, the small, essy-to-take tablets perfected by the famous Jayne Co., specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Support Urged for Bills on UW Tax Problem

Urging support for legislative bills enabling the University of Wisconsin to make payments for wisconsin to make payments for services rendered by municipalities in lieu of paying taxes. Leo F. Kosak, president of the Silver Badge Community club, spoke Friday to more than 100 members attending the club's first social program.

Wisconsin to make payments for services in the state of the payments for held tonight and Tuesday and Wednesday nights between 7:30 and 9:30 in Room 125, Central high school age are cordially invited to be present, including perprogram.

He also urged members to at-

Entertainment was furnished Entertainment was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bossing, who gave a vocal and instrumental duet, and by the West high German band. Members of the band are Douglas Taylor, Myron Dieter, Leon Petterson, Loib Aronin, Robert King and Jack Blodgett.

The Guild will present Lady Gregory's one-act play, "Spreadmental ing the News," at the Mendota State hospital soon and players will be selected for this show in Approximately 30 parts are to be cast in the these two plays.

Men's Choruholding up the rest of the University of Wisconsin Men's chorus. As it was, Bergethon was able to call it off by the simple expedient of stepping before the men, raising his hands, and sending them into 'Varsity"-which traditionally means the absolute, positive end of any campus concert. An audience of 1,100 or so An audience of 1,100 greeted the organization and heard what was on the whole a demonstration of male choral singing—which, admitted-ly, has its limitations in both varlety and library.

The program covered an area from religious music to musical comedy, but avoided, with only one or two exceptions, the songs which have become so traditional with men's glee clubs that they have also become trite and hackneyed.

The program's first encore was "Sophomoric Philosophy" writ-ten by, and sung for Prof. Raymond F. Dvorak, university bandmaster who is recovering from serious injuries suffered in a train accident.

Bergethon said he hoped
Dvorak was listening; the program was broadcast by WHA-

Of the church music, the best was probably de Victoria's "Ave Maria," although the chorus' opening number. Bach's "My Spirit Be Joyful," was well handled. Rachmaninoff's "Glory Be to God" turned into a lovely thing at the god although there thing at the end, although there were a few rough spots in the middle.

circle said 7 United States airmen were rescued successfuly late Sunday from the baren waste of Ellesmere island, 350 miles north of the magnetic pole.

A two-word message "evacuation successful' signalled the end of a four-day search for a U. S. air force C-82 cargo plane that crash-landed Thursday. The plane had been sighted Saturday.

The message from Air Commodore Martin Costello, in charge of the migh points were the spiritual, "Set Down. Servant," with a fine bass solo by Maurice D. Mann; a lively "Railroad Chant" arranged by Tom Scott, and a completely beautiful singing of a song from "Carousel"—"You'll Never Walk Alone." Donn Holder's solo in "There Is a Balm in Gilead" was another peak in the program. And a word must go to Charles
