Discussion
11 a. m.—Freshman Forum (WHA): "Preventive Medicine,"

On the eve of the University of Wisconsin Concert band's annual Palm Sunday concert, Conductor Paul Lavalle and his "Band of America" will salute the campus organization and its conductor, Prof. Raymond F. Dvorak, on the National Broadcasting Co.'s coast-to-coast network.

The salute will be a feature of Lavalle's program at 7 p. m. Friday, Apr. 8, over NBC-WIBA. The 48-piece band will play "Wisconsin's Pride" by Karl L. King.

Meanwhile, the Badger band is rehearsing under Emmett L. Sarig for its concert Sunday afternoon, Apr. 10, in the Wisconsin Union theater.

AT OBERLIN: Barbara Jane Maher, Madison, will dance with a ballet group appearing in "Le Malade Imaginaire" at Oberlin college, Oberlin, O., on Friday and Saturday. Miss Maher, a sophomore, is the daughter of Mrs. Constance R. Maher, 2811 Monroe st.

MALADE: Speaking of the Moliere play, here is a contributed report on a Madison production of the play:

An enthusiastic audience forgot that it was watching amateur actors talking a foreign language as a truly inspired performance recreated for them the great comedy of Moliere, "Le Malade Imaginaire," at the Wisconsin Union theater Saturday afternoon.

Casting, costumes, lively tim-have chosen "Tish," a comedy by Mary Roberts Rhinehart, as their spring play. It will be presented at 8 p. m. Friday, Apr. 8, in the school auditorium. Margaret Williams is directing rehearsals, with Anita Flint as student director. Shirley Roll will play the title role. Others in the cast will be Jane Spencer, Pat Runstrom, Barbara Wendell, Don Howde, Leslie West, Connie Connor, Dick L. Olson, Charlene Schaefer, Ronnie Kurth, Charlotte Coffee, Bob Murray, and Margo Krogsgund. Jim Oberling is stage manager, with Dick Kleinhertz and Phil Morrison in charge of lights and John Novotny handling sound effects.

The audience particularly appreciated the hilarious antics of the young doctor who sues for Angelique's hand and invites her, for their first "date," to witness a dissection; the role was taken by Roman Montemayor of Janesville. Jean Van Bladel was impressive as the doctor's father and as chief of the mock initiation ceremonies which ended the play. These owed much to the well-disciplined ballet group under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Belew of the physical education department.
