Blood Cells Counted in Trillions

By HASKIN
A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing the Long Beach Press-Telegram Information Bureau, 316 Eye St., N. E., Washington 2, D. C. The incense three (3) cents for return postage.
Q. DO THE RED BLOOD cells in the body multiply continually? H. Mc B.
A. Their life span, on the average, is only a few weeks. Every second, perhaps, as many as 10,000,000 are created. The red blood cells in the human body number trillions.
Q. What Bible character fell off a seat and broke his neck? E. H. M.
A. It was Eli, the Israelite priest. Eli, now 98 years old, was seated by the wayside to watch a battle between the Israelites and Philistines. When news of Israel's defeat came to him he fell backwards from the seat and broke his neck.
Q. Is there a record of the number of times that the late De Wolf Hopper recited "Casey at the Bat"? M. K. G.
A. He is said to have recited it over 15,000 times.
Q. For what person was Deaf Smith County, Texas, named? J. T. J.
A. This county was named after a Texas patriot, Erastus (Deaf) Smith, scout for Gen. Sam Houston and leader of the detachment that destroyed Vince's Bridge before the battle of San Jacinto. There is a Deaf Smith memorial monument erected by the state at Richmond, Texas.
Q. What is the difference between a band and an orchestra? L. W.
A. In modern usage a band is a company of musicians distinguished from an orchestra by the predominance of wind instruments over stringed instruments, the latter often being omitted entirely. The strings are the backbone of the orchestra and, in general, are given the most important melodic parts of the score.

Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.
1. DOES THE DISCOVERY THEY ARE "GROWING OLD" COME TO MOST MEN AND WOMEN AS A MUCH GREATER SHOCK THAN NECESSARY? YES [] NO []
2. WHEN YOU GET SOME THING YOU WANT MORE MUCH DOES IT CEASE TO BE A MOTIVE TO DRIVE AND GUIDE YOUR BEHAVIOR? YES [] NO []
3. IS THE CONFLICT BETWEEN LABOR AND MANAGEMENT DUE CHIEFLY TO THE FACT THAT BOTH WANT MORE MONEY? YES [] NO []

Answer to Question No. 1
Yes. Their picture of "old age" is grandpa and grandma in easy chairs by the fire with nothing to do. They don't realize there's little need nowadays for "growing old." First, science has discovered your mind doesn't grow old in real thinking power at all. Second, speed of learning slows down far more slowly than most people suppose. Third, industry is finding interesting employment for hosts of old people. Fourth, according to Columbia U. nutrition chemist, Sherman, new diets, over in diet, hormones, vitamins, body minerals, etc. can prolong the period of "buoyant health" in old age 12 or 15 years.

Answer to Question No. 2
Yes. Sociologist A. H. Maslow has shown the man who gets rich does not consciously want more riches. Of course he wants to keep his wealth but at once develops "higher" wants—the desire for wider self-expression, and more interesting experiences. The worker who secures his heart's desire, an absolutely permanent job, forgets this as a motive, and is then driven by desires for a better home, or more pleasure and self-expression. When a desire is gratified it ceases to dominate our conscious life and is succeeded by higher and wider desires.
Answer to Question No. 3
No. Extensive studies show business managers want chiefly self-expression, independence, esteem, leadership and interesting experience. Laborers (outside of a few of their own leaders) care little for leadership. They want mostly secure jobs and freedom from supervision—being bossed around. These are even stronger than the desire for esteem and self-expression. Plainly, it is a psychological conflict between things in life, each group prizes most. Certainly a new hint for sound labor legislation.

WHAT'S SO LONG about the odds, inflated dollars to raised doughnuts?
By and large, the minor leaguers tried out this spring in southern camps are proving even more minor than minor poets.
After a long lull, big-scale counterfeiting is back, dispelling a fear that this traditional aspect of free enterprise had departed the American scene.
Non-aggression is great stuff, right up to the point where somebody decides it has to be put on paper.

HOW YOUTH IS LOST Emotional Hurdle Cleared and Young Girl Grows Up

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK. UP It is something to see a girl of 19 turn into a young lady in 10 minutes. Only one thing can cause that—a sudden realization on her part that there is more to life than she has known.
I had a small part in such a drama the other day. Frances and I helped a neighbor girl over one of those emotional hurdles by which people grow up.
It was something to remember. And for us the experience held a little bonus of gladness, merely because we were there in a strange experience of terror and beauty to the girl—and shared it with her.
I was waiting on the sidewalk in midtown when the cab rolled up with Frances and our neighbor. Neither reached for her purse to pay the hackie—what woman does when a man's handy to carry out his chief privilege?—so I forked over the cash. The cabby winked at the girl, and got a blank look back.
We walked together into the big building—two ladies and a watchdog. The girl put her hand in mine and gave me a small smile of confidence. She had led a sheltered life. If she suspected the ordeal ahead, she gave no sign.
As quickly as possible we moved by elevator to the fifth floor. We came into a long room full of strange furniture and men in strange cloaks.
A sudden cloud of doubt sailed across the girl's face. My heart sank a little, too, for I wasn't sure just what lay ahead either. The whole mission might have been abandoned right then except for Frances. Women always have the courage in an emergency.
"Don't be afraid," said Frances. "Come on. The way you two look you'd think somebody was going to be murdered."
Well, I felt murder was a

I get so provoked at Pa. He has to keep his store closer on Sunday, but he goes down there to loaf in the afternoon. You'd think he was married to his business instead of me.
I put the girls back into a cab, and Nina waved me goodbye like a czarina dismissing an old lackey. That night she tossed out Dinky, her faithful elephant, and went to sleep hugging her new rabbit.
