By JOHN W. TEED Church Editor
Rev. Arthur George Downing, D. D., who has served Immanual Baptist Church as pastor since 1940, has been called by the Gotthern California Baptist Convention to become its director of church extension, and virtually an assistant to Dr. Frank M. Kepner, executive secretary of the convention.

Dr. Downing tendered his resignation last Sunday at the morning service, to become effective as of June 1. He will take the month of May as his age-old ceremony associated with the Festival of Freedom as it is carried out in a typical Jewish home during the first meal of the eight-day Passover week.

Members of the Liberal Jewish congregations will enter Series.
